Then, a golden mystery up heaved itself on the horizon – a beautiful, winking wonder that blazed in the sun, of a shape that was neither Muslim dome nor Hindu temple spire. It stood upon a green knoll.....

“There is the old Shwaydagon,” said my companion.

The golden dome said, “This is Burma, and it will be quite unlike any land you know about”.

- Rudyard Kipling, Letters From The East (1889)

The morning is free to rest or explore Bangkok at our own pace. Optional tours (extra cost) are available to visit the Grand Palace, or cruise on a long tail boat through water canals of Bangkok and see the floating communities. Our hotel is conveniently located, only a 10-15 minutes walk to the “sky train” – the most affordable and efficient way to get around in Bangkok. Check-out around noon, we can leave our luggage at the concierge while explore the city. This afternoon we board Thai Airway International flight TG305, leaving at 5:55 p.m., reaching Yangon at 6:40 p.m.. We check-in at the 5 star, luxurious Traders’ Hotel (by Shangri-la). Welcome to Yangon, lying in the fertile delta of southern Myanmar, on the wide Yangon River. The city is filled with tree-shaded boulevards and shimmering stupas float above the treetops. B/F

Day04 Yangon

Our journey begins at the old colonial-style city center. We first visit the gilded Sule Pagoda, dating back over 2,000 years. The gleaming octagonal pagoda was once used by the British as the nucleus of their grid pattern for the city. Enjoy a photo stop at the Kandawgyi \(Royal\) Lake and take pictures of Shwedagon Pagoda. We then continue to the National Museum with an interesting collection of treasures, including the 8 meter high Sihasana Lion Throne used by King Thibaw Min, the last Burmese king, and returned to Burma in 1908 by Lord Montbatten. Other interesting artifacts include royal jewellery an relics, Hintha opium weights and inscribed tablets. We will stroll through the Bogyoke Aung San \(Scott\) Market. With over 2,000 stalls, it is a pleasant covered market containing crafts, including gems and fabrics, from all corners of the country. This afternoon we will tour the Botathaung Pagoda next to the Yangon River, named after the 1,000 military leaders who escorted relics of the Buddha from India over 2,000 years ago. It houses a marvelous collection of antique Buddha images. We will also visit the Chauk Htat Gyi Pagoda, with its huge reclining Buddha image. Late evening we explore the highlight of today’s journey – a special sunset visit to the Shwedagon journey – a special sunset visit to the Shwedagon

Pagoda. For Myanmar Buddhists, this 2,500 year old structure is the most sacred of all Buddhist sits in the country, one which all Burmese hope to visit at least once in their lifetime. It features a massive bell-shaped superstructure that is covered by 60 tons of pure gold, still being augmented today. In the heart of the day, the stupa glitters bright gold. When the sun sets it casts its last rays on the soft orange dome, and a swarm of sparrows migrates from the Shwedagon ground until their return the following morning. It can be quiet and contemplative, or colorful and raucous. The shrine is certainly most beautiful during sunset when the stupa reflects the changing colors of twilight. Kipling called it “a golden mystery.....a beautiful winking wonder that blazed in the sun.” B/L/D

Day05 Yangon – Bagan

We transfer to the airport and take a morning flight on Air Bagan W9 141 departing at 6:45 a.m., arriving in Bagan at 8:05 a.m.. One of the great sights of Asia, Bagan is not to be missed.

It is a plain stretching from the Irrawaddy River dotted with thousands of spectacular 800 year old temple ruins. Somerset Maughham wrote the temples loom “huge, remote and mysterious out of the mist of the early morning like the vague recollections of a fantastic dream”. . We first visit the golden stupa of Shwezigon Pagoda, one of the most important shrine in the area. Completed between 1086 and 1090, its graceful bell-shape became the proto type for most of the later stupas in Burma. Next we go to see the distinguished architecture and the great colorful painting about the life of Buddha at Gubyaukgyi cave temple at Wetkyi-Inn. We then travel through Tharaba Gateway into Old Bagan. Check-in at the 4.5 star, deluxe, The Hotel at Tharabar Gate. Next stop is Ananda Temple, one of the largest, best preserved and most revered of the Bagan temples. Built around 1105 A.D., the perfectly proportioned structure heralds the stylistic end of the Early Bagan period. We will also visit Manuha Temple, a thousand year old structure enshrines the unusual combination of three seated and one reclining Buddha. It is said to be built by King Manuha, the respected “Captive King” while held here in the 11th century. Enjoy Orient Odyssey’s “People to People Contact” program, we explore the Myinkaba village, known for producing the finest lacquer ware in the country. We stop by one of the workshops and learn about the painstaking process of laureate making and decoration. Enjoy interaction with shop owners and villagers, unveiling authentic village life of Burma. We also tour the Gubyaukgyi Temple to enjoy the fine stuccowork. At sunset, we climb one of the monuments. The stairways lead up from the square bottom terraces to the round base of the stupa, from where we can enjoy splendid panoramic views of the surrounding plains, strewn with numerous ancient temple ruins and the Irrawaddy River. B/L/D

Day06 Bagan

Today is designed as a free day to rest, shop or explore at our own pace. The guide can also arrange any of the following optional excursions (extra cost) upon request.

Horsecart Ride To the Ruins

Hire a horse cart for couple of hours and ride through pagodas ruins, and monuments.

Stop along the way at your discretion. You can re-discover the sites that visited yesterday, or explore new stops.

Balloon Ride Over Bagan

Enjoy an unique opportunity to see the ancient city from a different perspective. From a balloon one will get a magnificent birds-eye view of thousand years-old pagodas, temples and the mighty Irrawaddy River. The champagne flights at sunrise last just under one hour – the balloon is guided by gentle winds not exceeding 15 miles per hour.

Excursion to Mt. Popa and Village of Salay

This is a full day excursion. Drive to Mount Popa, traditional home of the animist nat worship which predated Buddhism in Myanmar.

Small shrines to nat (spirits), many of whom have wonderfully whimsical names such as Mr. Handsome and Bandy Legs, are found lining the steps up the mountain. Enjoy the stunning view from the top. Then you will visit village of Salay to observe authentic village life.

Day07 Bagan – Mandalay / Mingun

We board Air Bagan flight W9009, departing at 7:35 a.m., arriving in Mandalay at 8:05 a.m.. Mandalay was the last Royal capital of the country before British took over. An ancient culture center with great historical importance, it is the most Burmese of the country’s large cities. It is home to the country’s most important Buddhist Monasteries where sixty percent of all the Burmese monks reside. We begin our sightseeing with an excursion to Mingun. We board a wooden boat and cruise up the Irrawaddy River. Enjoy an inside glimpse of the local river life – fishing villages, bullock carts, corn fields, market boats, women attending to their washing, and children playing in the water. Upon arrival, we visit the ruins of Mingun Paya, a monument to human ambition and designed to be the world’s largest pagoda. Thousands of slaves and prisoners of war labored here. The work was halted in 1819 when the king died, leaving a brick base about a third of its intended height. The earthquake of 1938 caused major damage. We also visit the nearby highlights: The Mingun Bell – cast in 1808 and weighing 90 tons, it is the worlds’ largest uncracked bronze bell; the Hsinbyume Paya – beautifully designed and constructed by the king in memory of his wife, the Hsinbyume princess.

Cruise back to the city, which takes its name from Mandalay Hill, the high bluff that rises just to the Northeast of the Mandalay Fort and its royal palace, we check-in at the 5 star, luxurious, Mandalay Hill Resort. Our next stop is Mahamuni Pagoda. The mahamuni image enshrined here is perhaps the most venerated image in the country, covered by 15 cm of gold leaf. Worshippers flock daily to the shrine at four in the morning to observe the unique face washing ceremony. Next we head to the intricately carved Shwenandaw Kyaung, “the Golden Teak Monastery”. It represents the pinnacle of the exquisite traditional wood building techniques, and is a fragile reminder of the old Mandalay Fort. At one time this building was part of the palace complex and the private apartment of King Mindon and his chief Queen. After his death, the next monarch had the building dismantled and reassembled on its present site in 1880 as a monastery. When the original palace complex was completely destroyed by fire, this monastery became the only reminder of the original splendor of royal life. We will see the spectacular, intricate carvings, and imagine the lavish life of the royal court. Next we tour the Kyaukdawgyi Paya, where a large Buddha statue has been carved out of a single block of local marble. The block was from the mines of nearby Sagyin. It was so colossal that it required 10,000 men laboring for 13 days to transport it from a canal to the current location. We will also visit the Sandamani Paya. Enjoy the view of a cluster of slender white washed stupas built on the site of King Mindon's temporary palace, used while the new Mandalay Palace was under construction. Our last stop is the “world's largest book”, the Buddhist scriptures or “tripitaka” inscribed on 729 marble slabs, at Kuthodaw Pagoda. At dusk, we will climb the Mandalay Hill and view the golden sunset over the city. B/L/D

Day08 Excursion to Amarapura / Sagaing / Ava (Inwa)

Today's program begins at Amarapura, “the City of Immortality”. Once a royal capital, the four pagodas that marked the four corners of the city walls still remain, as well as the watch tower and the treasury building.

We enjoy Orient Odyssey's “People to People Contact” program with a special visit to the Mahagandayon Monastery. This prestigious temple houses over 1,000 monks of all age groups.. Our specially planned logistics enable us to observe the daily mid-morning alms giving by faithful Buddhists to the monks and novices. Feel free to chat with the monks to obtain interesting insight into monastery life. We then go to the picturesque Sagaing Hill, which is the country's spiritual center and Buddhist devotees' favorite retreat. Sagaing Hill is crowded with hundreds of pagodas and monasteries, housing thousands of monks and nuns who retreat here for meditation and contemplation. We visit Tupayon Paya, with an unusual style of three stories each encircled by arched niches; and Datpaungze Paya, a more recent pagoda containing relics from other older temples. The most unique is the Hsinmyashin Paya, with intricate elephant statues stationed at the entrance way. We then board a local ferry to Ava \(Inwa\), located on an island between the Irrawaddy and the Myintnge Rivers. The quiet rural oasis was once the ancient capital of Burma from 1364 to 1783. We will explore Ava by horse cart, and pass through the ancient city walls to the impressive Bagaya Kyaung, a monastery built of teakwood and supported by 267 teak posts. The main hall stands on a raised platform, separate from the monk's quarters, and is designed so that space between the walls and roof allow air to circulate. The library on site also houses an interesting collection of palm-leaf manuscripts. Then we go to the brick and stucco monastery called Maha Aungmye Bonzan (also known as Ok Kyaung). It was built in 1818 by King Bagyidaw's chief Queen for the royal abbot Nyaunggan Sayadaw. We continue to the Nanmyin Tower, the famous “Leaning Tower of Ava”. The 27 meter high masonry watch tower is all that remains of the royal palace. The upper portion was shattered by the 1838 earthquake and the rest has taken a precarious tilt. Enjoy lovely views over the river from the top. At day's end, we return to Amarapura and stroll on the 150 year old U Beins' Bridge. The picturesque, long, rickety teak bridge extends over one kilometer across the Taungthaman Lake, curved to withstand wind and waves. From the bridge we can see lush rice field and small villages. At

Upon arrival at the lake we board a wooden boat and head out onto the lake, passing villages built on stilts and floating gardens tethered by bamboo poles. When we first encounter the lake – its placid flatness in stark contrast to the peaks on either side – it seems like a real-life Atlantis where the plug has been partially pulled and one must hop in a boat to gossip with a neighbor only a few meters away. The lake is considered to be the most beautiful spot of Burma. We will see calm waters dotted with patches of floating vegetation and fishing canoes. High hills rim the lake on all sides. The lake shore and islands contains 17 villages mostly inhabited by the Intha. The boat excursion crosses the lake to the western shore. The vessel cruises upstream in a long canal, passing through water locks and narrow waterways surrounded by lush bamboo and rice fields. We soon reach In Dein Temple Complex. A covered stairway led us to the beautiful Alaung Sitthou area, with hundreds of ancient pagodas, undiscovered carvings and unscratched ruins hidden in the overgrown moss and greenery. We spend some time exploring the site and enjoying the fantastic views. Then we approach the village of Sae Ma. Enjoy Orient
