international dateline. *Prices for departing from other major gateway cities are available upon request. F

Day02 Arrive in Mumbai

After immigration and customs, our representative will greet and accompany us to the 5 star, deluxe, Hotel Trident Mumbai. Enjoy a restful night to recover from jetlag. F

Day03 Mumbai (Elephanta Carvings)

Mumbai is India’s most dynamic metropolis. It is the country’s major industrial and financial center, and is also the main hub for the Indian film industry “Bollywood”. It is a melting pot for Hindus, Muslims, Christians, Parsees and Sikhs. Centuries of association with the British has left its imprint on the city with numerous buildings in Indo-Saracenic architecture. We first board a wooden ferry at Gateway of India. The cruise takes us across the harbor to the famous cave temples on the Elephanta Island.

Carved between 5th to 8th centuries A.D., it is famous for the magnificently sculpted panels. Return to the city, we will drive by the High Court, the ornamental University Building, the 280 ft high Rajabhai Clock Tower, the ornate Victoria Terminus, the colorful Crawford Market, and the Flora Fountain. We will visit the Prince of Wales Museum, home to a world class collection of China ware, miniature paintings and sculpture. Then we drive along the Marine Drive, once it was called “Queen’s Necklace”, to the Malabar Hill, passing Malaxmi Temple. We also tour the Jain Temple and stroll in the Hanging Gardens where we can enjoy the beautiful view of the city center and the bay. B/D

Day04 Mumbai – Cochin (Kochi)

After breakfast, we check-in for Jet Airways’ flight 9W401 departing at 10:35 a.m., arriving in Cochin at 12:20 p.m.. Welcome to Kerala, known for its spices. Travelers from around the world journeyed here to trade from as early as 1000 B.C. After we check-in at the 5 star, luxurious, Hotel Dream Cochin, we set off to explore this fascinating city on the Malabar Coast. We first visit the Mattancherry Dutch Palace, originally built by the Portuguese, and later on repaired by the Dutch (renaming it the Dutch Palace), although its architectural style is Keralan. We will enjoy its frescoes, dating from the 17th century, depict Indian epics in extraordinary vibrant vegetable colors. Next we go to the Pardesi Synagogue in Jew Town, a settlement that dates back a millennium to the times of King Solomon. We stroll the streets with picture perfect houses in 17th century Dutch and traditional Kerala styles. Today it is still thrives with antique and spice shops. The small synagogue is still used by the diminishing Jewish community; most families have left for Israel. The synagogue is floored with blue and white tiles from Canton, no two of which are the same. We then tour the Church of St. Francis, the oldest European Church in India. It houses some priceless antiquities including a palm leaf

The synagogue is floored with blue and white tiles from Canton, no two of which are the same. We then tour the Church of St. Francis, the oldest European Church in India. It houses some priceless antiquities including a palm leaf titled deed which the local Raja gave to the Portuguese in 1503. We head to the Fort Cochin area that overlooking the Arabian Sea. A beautiful waterfront community teaming with seafood vendors and expensive colonial style vacation homes. Here we will see the Chinese Fishing Nets. Unique to this part of Kerala, it is the living symbol of a centuries old Chinese influence on this coast. After diner we will drive to the local performing arts center to witness the spectacular Kathakali dance performance, a dance drama based on the ancient epics “Kalaripayattu”. It is a display of martial arts originated in the temples of Kerala which also marks the most ancient form of defense in the world. B/D

Day05 Cochin – Allepey - Houseboat

This morning we drive to the village of Allepey (about three hours). On route, enjoy Orient Odyssey’s “People to People Contact” program with a stop at village coil making factory and interact with locals. The backwater region of Kerala is unbelievably beautiful. Travelers can journey through a network of narrow canals and wide lakes where people paddle to their daily tasks. Unlike the wave –tossed western sea shore, which runs roughly parallel, the backwaters are calm.

Boats of all descriptions are punted or sailed along the shallow green waterways with palm arching overhead. Tidy bungalows line up on either side, to give way to great heaps of coconut fiber or clusters of Chinese fishing nets, lit up at night to attract shrimps. Where the waters widen, villagers sometimes can be found up to their necks, picking up fish from the muddy bottom with their toes and flinging them into terracotta pots that float beside them on the surface. We reach Allepey in time to board our private houseboat. Traditionally called a Kettuvallam, (literally, tied boats). It was built out of jakwood planks sewn together with coir rope. We will spend the rest of the day leisurely plying tranquil, deeply shaded maze of canals and immersing ourselves in life along the backwaters. Not long ago, heavily-laden cargo wallams once plied the same waters, laboriously punted or tugged by sails. They shared their passage with fishing skiffs, chugging ferries and paddled dug-outs carrying goods to the market. We will see beaches with dense palm groves, and towering lighthouses at old trading ports. Each of our Kettuvallam has two or three air conditioned bedrooms with private bath. There is also a sitting area and a day bed in the front where one can lie down and enjoy the passing sceneries. The friendly crews will prepare delicious meals and snacks. The houseboat will dock at night. We will enjoy a drink under the stars and a good sleep. B/D

Day06 Arriving in Kumarakom

Wake up by the singing bird and the welcoming sunshine. Enjoy breakfast with a cup of Kerala tea. We continue sailing through the jade smooth waters, passing many villages, quacking squadrons of ducks and oared boats that carries cycles, bearded Syrian Christian priests, newsboys and fishwives with an aromatic basket. Around noon we enter the vast Vembanad Lake. In winter, Water fowls and cuckoos arrive here in abundance. We might even see large flocks of migratory wild ducks from Siberia coming in spectacular formation to roost. We arrive at our tranquil river resort at the 5 star, luxurious, Zuri Kumarakom, Kerala Resort, situated right on the lake bank.

This is a cluster of little islands like quaint little jewels lies on the eastern shore of the vembanad Lake, and is undoubtedly the most enchanting backwater destination that offers visitors many leisure options. The rest of the day is free. We can enjoy the spectacular sunset, book a spa or massage treatment, or unwind in the property’s beautiful pool. Try the unique Ayurvedic Messages, in which herbs and oils are used to rejuvenate body and skin. B/D

Day07 Kumarakom – Periyar Wild Life Sanctuary

Today’s highlight is a drive (about six hours) with spectacular sceneries. Our bus will climb several thousand feet into the high mountains. Enjoy Orient Odyssey’s “People to People Contact” program, we make random stops at interesting villages and view points including a rubber plantation. Late afternoon we reach our destination. Set high in the ranges of the Western Ghats is the Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary. We check-in at the beautiful, 5 star, Elephant Court. The Periyar Wildlife Sanctuary is one of the best tropical wildlife sanctuaries in the world and is the repository of rare endemic flora and fauna. It is home to elephants, tigers, leopards, bison, antelopes, wild boars and a wide variety of birds. The heart of the sanctuary is a reservoir formed in 1895. The lake meanders around the contours of the wooded hills, providing perennial source of water for the local wildlife. The best time to view wild life is at dawn or dusk, when most animals come out of the forest to the shore, to drink water. We will take a wild life viewing cruise this evening, or early tomorrow morning. B/D

Day08 Periyar – Madurai

This morning we tour a spice farm. Through Orient Odyssey’s “People to People Contact” program, we chat with farmers and learn characters of many spice plants. Kerala has long been regarded as the spice capital of the world.

Although pepper remains to be the king of Kerala’s spices, the state also produces of Cardamom, Cinnamon, Nutmeg, Mace, Ginger and Turmeric; as well as a rich cultivation of cashew nuts. We then proceed for a drive to Madurai (about four hours), the “temple town of South India”. On route we stop at a Tea Farm and / or a Tea Factory. We arrive at the luxurious, boutique, Heritance Madurai in time for dinner. Madurai is the magnificent “Temple city” synonymous with the celebrated Meenakshi. Situated on the banks of river Vaigai, Mdurai has a rich cultural heritage passed on from the great tamil era dating back to 2,500 years ago. It has been an important cultural and commercial center from as early as 550 AD, and was the capital city for the great Panday Kings. Tonight we will attend the mysterious evening prayer ceremony of “Aarti” at the Meenakshi Temple, a short and interesting daily ritualistic procession depicting Lord Shiwa going to the bedroom to rest for the night. Since the exact time of “Aarti” is to be decided by the senior priests and might vary from day to day, we might have to wait for a long time in the dark temple grounds. B/D

Day09 Madurai - Chennai (Madras)

Today we will tour the magnificent Meenakshi Temple in detail. Dedicated to the goddess, and consort of Siva, this is said to be the biggest temple in the country. It is said to have 33 million sculptures and the most striking Gopurams at four corners. We will enter the Nayakkar Mandapam Hall, “Hall of Thousand Pillars”. It contains many interesting artifacts, including a single light holder of 1,008 lamps which will be lit on festive occasions. Just outside we will see the musical pillars, when struck, each emitting a different musical note. We will see thousands of devotees come pay homage and play rituals. This afternoon we visit the Thirumalai Nayaka Palace with its massive courtyard and grand hall. The next stop is the huge temple tank of Mariamman Theppakulam, a spot rarely included in conventional tour programs. The tank is almost lake like, and is the largest one in the country. We will enjoy a leisurely stroll along the water front and observe busy local life. Apparently it is also a favorite spot for locals to relax after work. After dinner, the guide will assist us to check-in for Jet Airway’s flight 9W3520, departing at 8:55 p.m., arriving in Chennai at 10:10 p.m.. We will check-in at the luxurious, 5 star, Chariot Beach Reosrt or GRT Temple Bay. B/D

Day10 Excursion to the Mahabalipuram and Kanchipuram

Welcome to Chennai – also called Madras, the capital of Tamil Nadu, where Dravidian culture reached its zenith. It is a part of the legendary Coromandel Coast with a marvelous tradition of music and dance. The golden sandy beaches merge with the breakers of the Bay of Bengal. One of India’s four metropolises, this city of 6 million people has a pronounced colonial heritage dating back to the 17th century, when first the Portuguese and then the British arrived here. Today we take an excursion to Mahabalipuram, a beautiful village by the sea, where all else is dwarfed by a dream world of awesome Tamil art, an open air museum of sculpture in living rock. The piece de resistance is Arjuna’s Penance: “Descent of the Ganga”. It is the world’s largest bas-relief, a beautiful composition of hundreds of celestial beings, human and animals all hurrying to a natural rock cleft that divides the giant stone. We then visit the legendary Shore Temple, stood by the sea for 12 centuries. Its twin spires are pure poetry in granite. In the afternoon we head to Kanchipuram, one of the greatest temple complex. “The Golden City of a Thousand Temples”, Kanchipuram is one of the seven sacred cities of India. We will explore the most significant site, including Kailasanathar Temple, Kamakshi Amman Temple, Varadaraiar Temple and Vaikunta Perumal Temple. B/D

Day11 Chennai (Madras)

This morning enjoy a scenic 1 hour drive to Chennai and check-in at the 4 star, deluxe, The Pride. Today we explore the bustling capital city of Chennai, the fourth largest metropolitan city in India and the youngest. Formerly known as Madras, the city remains steeped in rich tradition and civilization despite strong tides of modernization. First we visit Fort St George built in 1653. Here we will trace reminders of the past at St. Mary’s church – the first church consecrated on Indian soil. We will also visit the National Art Gallery and explore its bronze collection. The most stunning piece is the Chola period Nataraja, the God Shiva, in cosmic dance pose. Our bus will drive along the marina, the elegant seaside promenade to the old Indian section of Mylapore. Here we will see the San Thome Basilica – the culmination of the enduring legend of Thomas Didymus, the apostle who doubted and who is believed to have lived and preached on Mylapore’s shores. The tour ends at the Mylapore Temple. We will enjoy a free evening to explore the city at our own pace. B/D

Day12 Chennai – USA

After breakfast, we savor our unforgettable journey to the splendor South India, and board our homebound flight, arriving in USA on the same day. B/F
